- Combines survival elements with RPG systems, allowing players to play in whatever way they see fit. - The experience is unique and many things you had imagined before are implemented here, and some things you could not have thought of. - Different characters with unique personalities, all with their own strengths and weaknesses. - Since there are four characters, the possibilities are numerous. - Beautiful graphic style, with a smooth anime style. - The main character also has an action game system in action. (Though not the main protagonist.) - Optimized from both a hardware and software standpoint to enable a smooth experience for all players. About the Guest Characters - The main character is a girl named Chise. She is a spirit that transcends time and space. All she wants is to stop the evil forces of the Spirits that have existed on Earth, and to live her life in peace. She cannot change her own fate, but she wants to protect you. - The supporting character is a warrior woman named Rias. She was once a spirit-goddess, but is now trapped in a human body. In her memories she remembers the woman she was and what she had planned to do. She wants to return to her previous life, but most of the people she's encountered have been infected with this crazy compulsion to exist, so she's unable to. - The third companion is an NPC warrior named Carlion. He's an immortal warrior that has been living his entire life in a plane of existence known as "The Nexus." Things are all out of balance there, and a lot of people are caught in a cycle of violence and chaos. Carlion spends his time surviving through the streets, seeking out lost children. - The fourth and final character is a celestial spirit. Unlike the other three, he cannot die, so he can always stay at your side if you need him. His name is Haku, and he's a very mischievous heavenly spirit. Since he's a celestial spirit he's unable to leave the sky, but he hangs around you because he has an attachment to you and does not wish to see you die.
